Classical Devotional Music Vocal & Sitar Recital

Smt.Esha Bandyopadhyay & Shri Partha Bose

Ms. Esha Bandyopadhyay, based in Kolkata, India, has emerged as one of the well-known performers of North Indian Vocal Music. Initially trained by her mother Smt. Maitreyi Banerji in the early years and later under veteran Guru, Mrs Krishna Dasgupta for three decades, Ms. Esha has specialized in Khayal (pure classical music form) and Thumri, Dadra, Bhajan (semi classical forms). She has extended her repertoire to the genre of Bengali semi-classical songs (regional songs of Bengal) under the guidance of veteran trainer & musician Late BimanMukherjee. Esha has earned recognition in major music festivals in Calcutta, Varanasi, Delhi, Gifted with a unique tonality, evoking oriental emotions that also relate to western sensibilities, Esha's performances, lecture-demonstrations and workshops for leading organizations and reputed universities of U.S.A, Canada & Europe have been highly acclaimed, just as teaching & performance at the Summer School, Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, London, did. She was the only Indian singer in Rasa International Music Festival in Munich in 2000.

Trained for five decades in the truest traditions of Guru-Shishya Parampara by Rev. Guru Pt. Monoj Shankar of Senia-Maihar Gharana. Shri Partha is credited with a distinct approach to music, reflecting an imaginative synthesis of virtuosity and creativity. Connoisseurs have marked his performances in major music festivals of India - including Dover Lane Music Conference, Keramatullah Khan Memorial Music Festival, Saptak Samaroh, Tansen Samaroh (Gwalior), and international festivals - including Bath Festival, Maastricht Univ. festival, Black & Gold Series, Nebraska, USA, National Multicultural Festival Canberra, Australia.

Recipient of the prestigious NIKHIL BANERJEE MEMORIAL AWARD in 2017 and SANGEET RATNA & VADYA SHIROMANI titles, Shri Partha divides his time between Kolkata, his home, and rest of the world - performing, composing, teaching, lecturing at countless centers including reputed universities in India & abroad.
