Sahasra Chandi Yagna

Friday, August 2, 2019 to Sunday, August 11, 2019
Chandi Parayanam Starts January 18, 2019

Being the 20th year anniversary of Satha Chandi Yagna and our Temple's 35th year anniversary, Sri Sivachariar has advised us to perform Sahasra Chandi Yagna.

Sahasra Chandi Yagna is one of the highest forms of ritual worship of Devi conducted for the welfare of the world. This is a powerful Yagna that brings great positive vibrations to the Temple and to the devotees. During the event, Devi Mahathmyam will be recited one thousand times, one hundred Chandi homams will be performed along with Tharpanam and Marjanam, and 100 Acharya Bhojanam will be served. Devi Mahathmyam will be recited daily over the period from January 18 through August 1, 2019. Sri Sivachariar will inaugurate the Sahasra Chandi Yagna with a three day function on January 18, 19 and 20, 2019 and give deeksha to all interested devotees for the Navakshari mantra japam. The finale will be for 10 days from Friday, August 2 to Sunday, August 11, 2019.

Many devotee participatory Poojas like Lalitha Sahasranama Kumkumarchana, group chanting of Navaakshari Mantra and practice sessions for Devi Mahathmyam recitation will be arranged during the weekend for the devotees to participate leading up to the 10-day event.
